HOMMAGE À YOLANDE NAUFAL (1949-2023)

APRIL 04, 2024 - APRIL 18, 2024

24

“The feelings of color are reshaped through my psyche, felt, and experienced from within myself. I must look within myself and not around me. I do not mean representing myself. But, I affirm that I am my subject.”

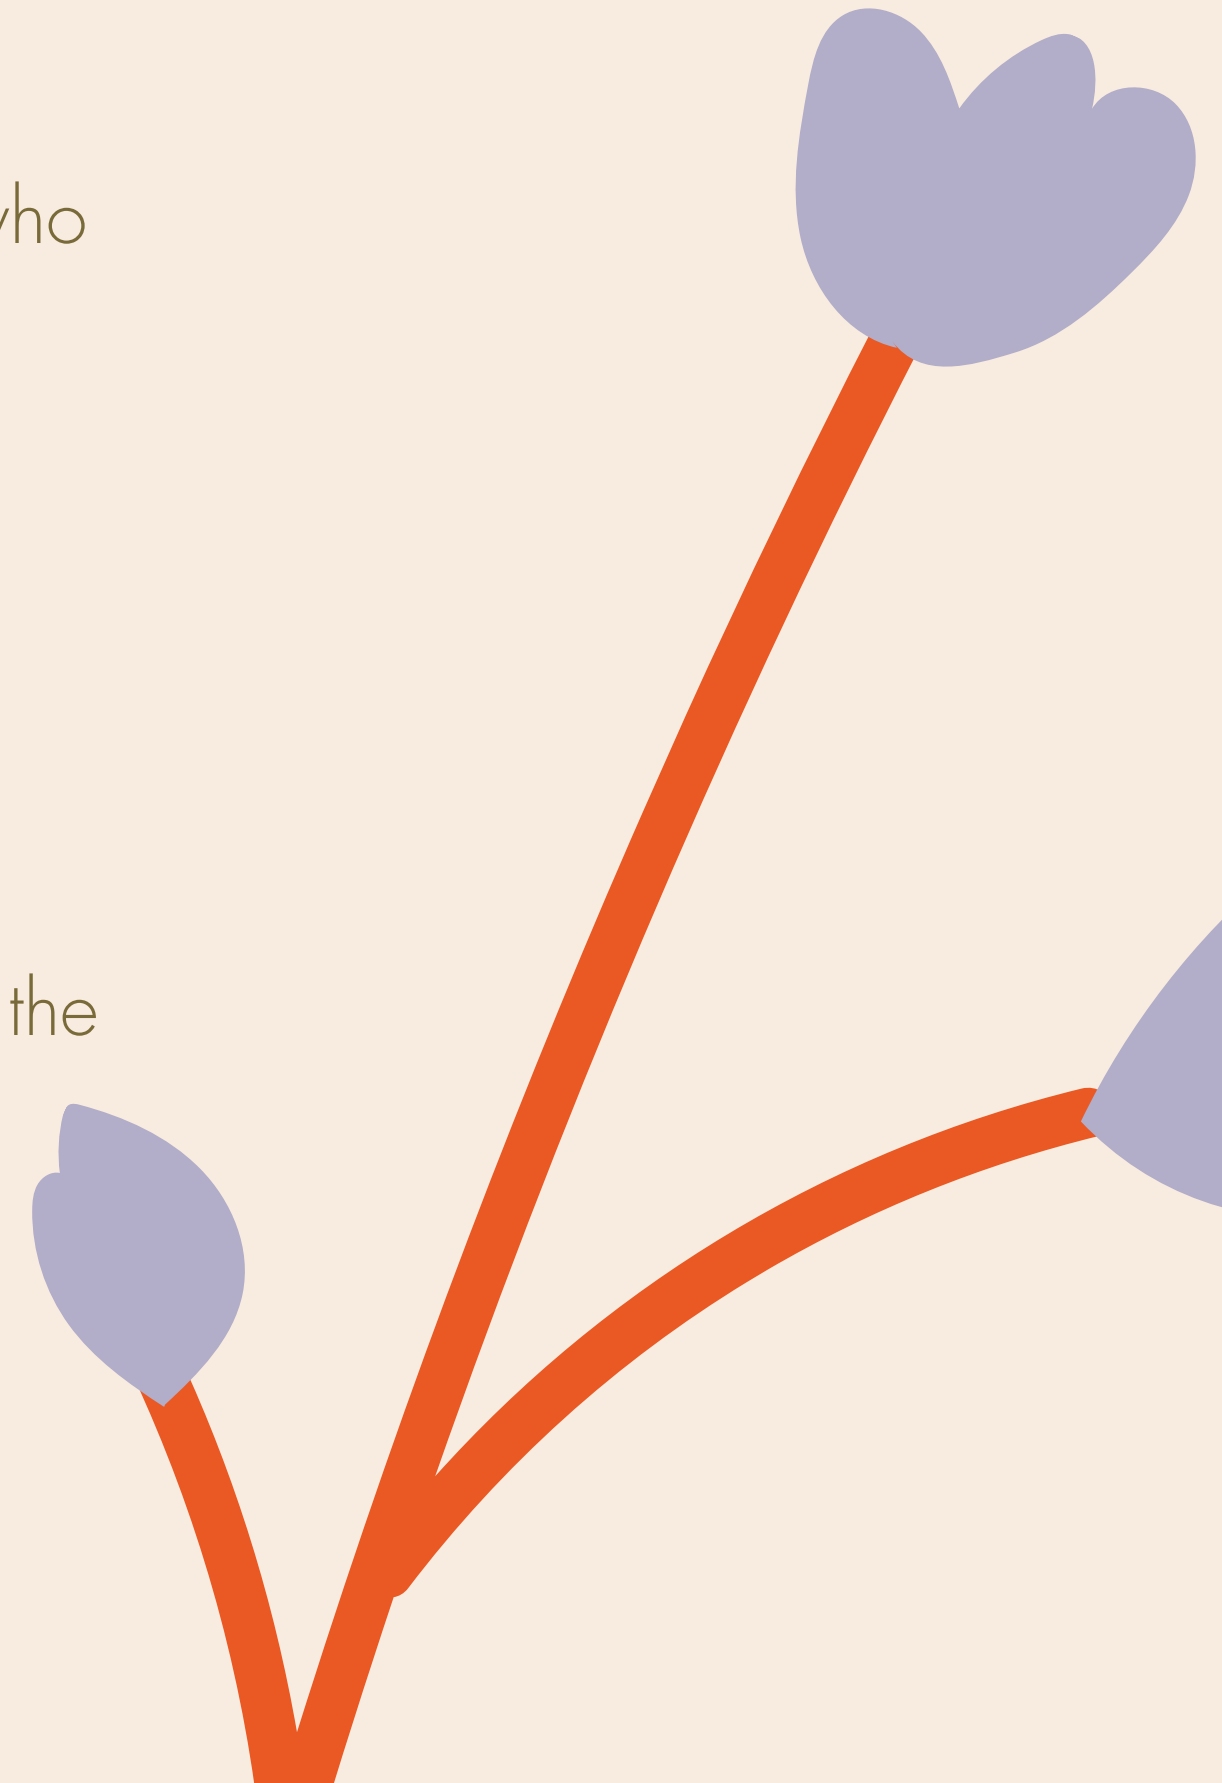

- Yolande Naufal

Yolande Naufal [June 4, 1949 – January 24, 2023] was a Lebanese artist who lived her entire life in Gemmayze, Beirut.

Her work is associated with naive art and has been regularly exhibited in Lebanon and abroad as solo and group exhibitions. Her work was part of various collections in Lebanon, France, Austria, Sweden, the UK, Denmark, Australia, South Korea, and the USA. Her artwork was featured in several art books in Lebanon and the virtual museum of Lebanese contemporary art.

In her creations, Yolande Naufal plays with her imagination and takes us into the labyrinth of her multifaceted works. Her paintings are the outcome of happy nostalgia for childhood and a beautiful, lively dream.

Naufal has a Ph.D. in psychology, is also the author and illustrator of several books for children, and is the co-founder of the Lebanese Association for Art Education.
